

North Country Matters speaks to Jenne

LOCAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS SHOW: Assemblywoman discusses priorities at start of Legislative session

POTSDAM — The New York State 2017 Legislature is in session for the year. North Country Matters talks with Assemblywoman Addie Jenne, who represents the 116th Assembly "River District" seat. She discusses the start of the Legislative session and what she thinks will take priority as the legislators work on the state budget, education funding, health care, ethics

Addie A.E.
Jenne

and voting reforms and other issues
of interest to her north country constituents.

The show is available on YouTube at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Olnl9OkhIA8.

North Country Matters is a local public affairs video magazine now in its 13th year.
The NCM civic partners working to educate north country residents about critical public policy issues facing the region include AAUW-St. Lawrence County, the League of Women Voters of St. Lawrence County and the Potsdam Public Library. The shows are filmed in the Fred W. Cleveland Computer Center at the Potsdam Library.

Be sure to check out the NCM Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/NorthCountryMatters/ for additional information about the show.